A Run-derful Story

by Randi Jo Hammock & Kory Kellogg

Randi Hammock and Kory Kellogg got the chance to interview Coach Burkett and Julia Sylvester. They are very excited about cross country this year. This is the only year that they have the whole girl team. The boy's team this year is kind of small but they still expect a lot. Julia Sylvester's favorite part of cross country is the feeling after you accomplished something. Julia Sylvester medaled while at her first meet. She also got her record time thus far. Julia's inspiration for cross country was that she joined track and she was good at it so she decided to join cross-country to get better. Julia Sylvester enjoys cross country because it is an individual sport but you also rely on your team. Coach Burkett expects the best out of his students like every coach does. They finished 10th in the Sapulpa meet. He became a cross country coach because he was a football, a basketball, and a track but he wanted a cross country team.

This week in Band...

by Randi Jo Hammock & Kory Kellogg

Last week in band we learned 2 sets of our show. We also learned our state fair marching competition music "Some Nights". That week we also had a band booster meeting about fundraisers. (Speaking of fundraisers if you would like to help with the band go find a band student or Mrs. Lerner and take a look at all of the stuff we are selling. We have stuff like cheese, sausage, and a lot of different sweets. Our goal is $2000 for equipment and contest fees. Anything would help and we would all greatly appreciate it.) Ok now back to what we are learning in band. We had a very productive rehearsal on Thursday night (like always). We have a few things coming up soon. On Monday the 18th the band is attending the Oklahoma City state fair marching competition, so wish us the best of luck. We are also getting ready for a few honor bands. Coming up soon is Cimarron Valley Honor Band and all state. Honor bands are a competition where you go and compete to be in a band full of the top players that competed.

Drumright Defeats Caney Valley

By Kara Ingram

Last Friday the football boys went down to Caney Valley and sadly got defeated with the score of 13-14. Although they played a fantastic game, it was a tough loss. But better luck next week.

Faculty and Staff Spotlight

Mrs. Leeann Dennis

Known to her students as Ms. Leeann. Three traits that define Ms. Leeann include grateful, hardworking and loving. Something that might surprise you about Ms. Leeann is she does care for chocolate. Ms. Leeann said "my parents are my biggest inspiration, they have always worked hard and taught that you can do anything as long as you're willing to put some time effort. Ms. Leeann's personal philosophy is "live life to the fullest and never take things for granted. You never know when it all will be taken away." Ms. Leeann loves animals. She only owns two boxers. Her favorite thing about working at Drumright schools is watching students' progress and grow into young adults. A quote from Mr. Leeann. "Every day I walk through the doors I know it's a new adventure."

Do you want a chance to be in the school newspaper?

The Tornado Times is currently looking for student perspective articles. The articles need to be between 100 and 250 words and describe your viewpoint of how school is for you. If you are interested, please submit your article to Mrs. Haines at lhaines@drumright.k12.ok.us for review.

Problem?

If so, maybe the Tornado Times can help. Please contact the Tornado Times at: drumrighttornadotimes@gmail.com with a description of your problem.

Our staff would be happy to help!

S.Y.A.T.P.

by Kory Kellogg

S.Y.A.T.P. which stands for see you at the pole is a time for students to get together around the flagpole and pray. This year's see you at the pole's theme is Fix Your Eyes upon Jesus. Tessa Snell volunteered to read this year's devotion. Kory Kellogg will be reading this year's see you at the pole message. Karleigh Bardy will be saying The Lord's Prayer. Steely Jones will be saying the forgiving prayer. Drumright First Assemblies of God's youth group will be leading us in worship this year. Something special about this year's see you at the pole is that it's completely student-led. We will be meeting at the elementary school in the morning Wednesday, September 27th, at 8:00 AM. So come join us! Also this is the global week of prayer. So I encourage everyone to pray this week.
